

2023 Impact Report

Peaceful Paths is the certified domestic violence center serving adult and children in Alachua, Bradford, and Union counties. Services they provide are free and confidential including emergency on-campus shelter and housing, a 24-hour crisis helpline, counseling and support groups for victims and families, victim advocacy, economic empowerment and financial literacy, legal services, professional education and training, violence prevention education, relocation assistance and community awareness.

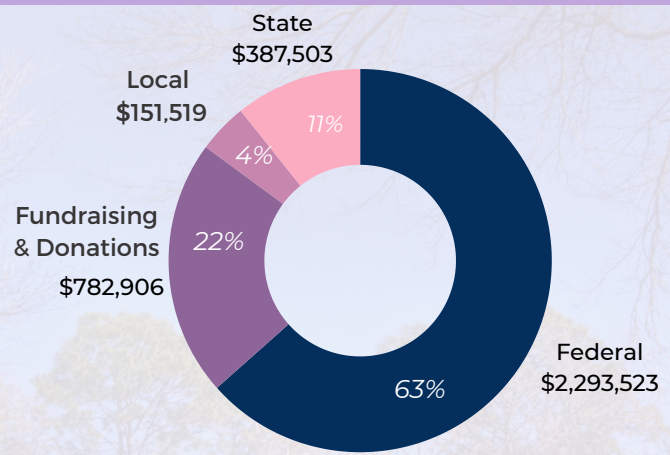

2023 Services Provided Snapshot

“Peaceful Paths gave me hope and a sense of real security. They allowed me to find myself again . . .”
- Survivor of Domestic Violence

2023 Accomplishments & Budget

- The agency provided $223,612 in direct financial assistance, supplies and in-kind support.
- Brittani Melvin and her team of legal warriors helped to get 616 injunctions for local survivors.
- Peaceful Paths served 1935 new persons.
- The agency helped 37 male survivors offering a total of 1,696 services to adult males this year.
- The Supportive Housing project served 38 families last year, a new record! The Rapid Rehousing project placed 165 families in safe, community-based housing, another new record!
- Both the High-Risk Team model and the Abuse in Later Life Project have been renewed!
- Prevention Programming taught over 9,100 students this year within the community.

- ### Financial Highlights
- GuideStar Approved Charity rating.
 - Annual audits demonstrate financial stability.
 - Funding losses in Federal VOCA Grant totaling $900,000 over 12 months.
 - Fund the Legacy...Fill the Gap Capital Campaign to help meet shortfall.
 - Doubled our monthly donation membership program.

24/7 Helpline
Call: 352.377.8255
Text: 352.727.0948

Outreach Office
352.377.5690

Website
peacefulpaths.org

Follow Us
@peacefulpaths